

Exam invigilators required

We are looking for invigilators to join our experienced and friendly exam team.

This is a casual post with working hours agreed before each exam period.

Invigilators are required at different times throughout the year, especially during the public exam period in May and June

For further information please visit the Academy website's vacancies section or email exams@tbowa.org

I came to give life - life in all its fullness

