

Art and Design

BTEC Level 3 Foundation Diploma

This course is equivalent to 1.5 A Levels and offers an exciting balance of introductory work across a range of art and design disciplines. This course is ideal if you enjoy art and design and prefer a more practical route of study. It will prepare you for higher education or a specialist art career, and includes visits to influential art galleries.

Core units

Unit 1: Visual Recording

Unit 2: Materials, Techniques and Processes

Unit 3: Ideas and Concepts

Unit 4: Communication through Art and Design

Additional units

Students must complete additional units from a range, to include: Exploring Ceramic Techniques (3D); Printmaking Techniques (2D); Application, Exploration and Realisation; Mixed Media image making; Surface Pattern; Professional Development and Portfolio Building.

How will I learn?

Through research, group work and independent study.

This is a hands-on, active course, and learning will be based on a series of project briefs and through exploring different materials and media.

Where can I go after the course?

Careers: Graphics; Fine Art; Illustration; Fashion; Costume Design; Ceramics; Model Further Education: Art Foundation Degree Courses; Higher Level Art Degree courses if the portfolio work is strong enough.

Entry Requirements

Standard 6th Form entry requirements. It is preferred that students have a minimum of a GCSE grade 5 or BTEC Merit at Level 2 in this or a related subject..

You must have a portfolio of evidence to document your creativity.

Equivalent to 1.5 A Levels.

Assessment

Work is assessed through a combination of externally set assessments and portfolio briefs.

Students will also produce a Final Project for the compulsory specialist units which will be externally assessed.

Exam Board

Pearson BTEC

